DECEMBER 1

ABOUT STRATTON:

Stratton School District, located on the Eastern Plains of Colorado, sits just off the I-70 corridor, about 28 miles from the Colorado/Kansas border and a straightforward two-hour drive from Denver. Our town, with a population of around 600, is rooted in farming and ranching, offering a close-knit, family-oriented community. Many of our instructional staff are former students, demonstrating a strong commitment to the district and its future.

The district is proud of its tradition of excellence in both academics and athletics, providing a range of opportunities for students to develop into well-rounded citizens and leaders. We are continually enhancing our programs to ensure that every student has access to high-quality education and resources for success.

Stratton School District serves 218 students from kindergarten through 12th grade, with a diverse student body and a focus on developing strong well rounded citizens.

We are seeking a superintendent who will continue to build on the district's strong foundation while driving future growth and innovation.
